4—Meaning of spent conviction(1) For the purposes of this Act, the conviction of a person for an offence is spent if—

- (a) the conviction is spent under Part 2; or
(b) the conviction is quashed; or
(c) the person is granted a pardon for the offence.

- (2) This section applies subject to the operation of section 6.

5—Scope of Act

- (1) The following convictions are capable of becoming spent under this Act:

- (a) a conviction for an eligible adult offence;
(b) a conviction for an eligible juvenile offence.

- (2) However, the following convictions cannot become spent under this Act:

- (a) a conviction of a body corporate;
(b) a conviction for a sex offence;

Drafting note—

This paragraph is required if it is decided that a sex offence cannot become spent under this Act.

6—Application of Act

- (1) This Act applies to convictions for offences against the laws of this State and convictions for offences against any other law.
- (2) In the case of convictions for offences against the laws of a recognised jurisdiction, the mutual recognition principle applies.
- (3) In the case of convictions for offences against the laws of any other jurisdiction (including the laws of an overseas jurisdiction), this Act applies with the changes necessary to enable its provisions to apply to those convictions in a way that corresponds as closely as possible to the way in which it applies to convictions for offences against the laws of this jurisdiction.

- (4) However, if an offence against the laws of another jurisdiction (including the laws of an overseas jurisdiction), other than a recognised jurisdiction, has no correspondence to an offence against a law of this jurisdiction, then the conviction of the person for the offence is immediately spent for the purposes of this Act.

5 Drafting note—

A jurisdiction may wish to vest a court with a specific power to be able to declare, on application, whether a law of another jurisdiction corresponds to a law of the jurisdiction.

- (5) This Act applies to convictions for offences whether such convictions occurred before or after the commencement of this Act.

10 Drafting note—

For jurisdictions where spent conviction legislation has been in operation, transitional provisions will be required. It is proposed that offences that have already been spent will continue to be spent (no matter whether or not they would be capable of being spent under this Act), and that offences committed before the commencement of this Act that were capable of being spent under existing legislation will also be capable of becoming spent under this Act—see Schedule 3.

Part 2—Requirements for a conviction to become spent

7—Determination of qualification period

- (1) Subject to this section, the qualification period for the conviction of a person for an offence is—
- (a) in the case of an eligible juvenile offence, other than where the person was dealt with as an adult—5 consecutive years; or
- (b) in any other case—10 consecutive years,
- from the relevant day for the conviction for the offence.
- (2) If during the qualification period for a conviction (the first conviction) the person is convicted of another offence (the second conviction), the time that has run as part of the qualification period for the first conviction is cancelled and the relevant day for the second conviction becomes a new relevant day for the first conviction (and a conviction for a third offence within the period that then applies will have a corresponding effect on the first and second convictions, and so on for any subsequent conviction or convictions).
- (3) In addition—
- (a) if at the end of a period that applies under subsection (1) or (2) the person is a registrable offender under the Child Sex Offenders Registration Act 2006 who is subject to reporting obligations imposed by Part 3 of that Act, the qualification period is extended so as to expire when or if those reporting obligations cease or are suspended under that Part; and
- (b) if during the period of extension that applies under paragraph (a) the person is convicted of another offence, the conviction has the same effect on any previous conviction that is subject to the period of extension that a second or subsequent conviction has on a previous conviction or convictions under subsection (2).

Spent Convictions Bill 2009

Part 2—Requirements for a conviction to become spent

- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3)(b), a conviction for a second or subsequent offence will be disregarded if—
- (a) the offence is a minor offence (including in a case where the conviction with respect to the minor offence is constituted by a finding under section 3(5)); or
 - (b) the conviction is quashed; or
 - (c) the convicted person is granted a pardon.
- (5) A period under a preceding subsection may commence before the commencement of this Act and, in such a case, the qualification period will be completed—
- (a) on the commencement of this Act; or
 - (b) on the day on which the qualification period would have been completed if this Act had been in force continuously since the day of the relevant conviction,
- whichever is the later.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) the relevant day for the conviction for an offence is the day on which the person is convicted; and
 - (b) a reference to a conviction for an offence does not extend to a conviction for an offence against a law of another jurisdiction (including the laws of an overseas jurisdiction), other than a recognised jurisdiction, that has no correspondence to an offence against a law of this jurisdiction.

8—Spent conviction—general provision

A conviction for an offence, other than a prescribed eligible offence, is spent on completion of the qualification period for the conviction.

Drafting note—

The reference to a prescribed eligible offence should be deleted if it is decided that a sex offence cannot become spent under this Act.

9—Spent conviction for a prescribed eligible offenceDrafting note—

This section should be deleted if it is decided that a sex offence cannot become spent under this Act.

- (1) A conviction for a prescribed eligible offence is spent if, on application to the Court by the convicted person, the Court makes an order that the conviction is spent.
- (2) An application for an order under this section in respect of a conviction—
 - (a) may not be made until the completion of the qualification period for the conviction; and
 - (b) may not be made if the Court has refused to make an order under this section in respect of the same conviction within the preceding 2 years.

- (b) the length and kind of sentence imposed in respect of the conviction;
- (c) the length of time since the conviction;
- 10 (d) all the circumstances of the applicant, including the circumstances of the applicant at the time of the commission of the offence and at the time of the application and whether the applicant appears to have rehabilitated and to be of good character;
- (e) whether the conviction prevents or may prevent the applicant from engaging in a particular profession, trade or business or in a particular employment;
- (f) whether there is any public interest to be served in not making an order.

15 10—Subsequent conviction after conviction becomes spent

- (1) A conviction of a person for an offence (the first offence) that is spent is not revived by the subsequent conviction of the person for another offence (the later offence).
- (2) However, if—
- 20 (a) the later offence was committed during the qualification period for the first offence; and
- (b) the later offence is an offence for which a conviction during the qualification period for the first offence would have resulted in the cancellation of the time that had already run as part of the qualification period under section 7(2) or (3)(b),
- 25 the first offence will cease to be treated as a spent conviction under this Act while the qualification period for the later offence is running.

Part 3—Effect of a conviction becoming spent

Division 1—General provisions

11—Ability to disregard spent convictions

 - (2) If a hearing is held in private, the Court may give directions as to who may be present.
 - (3) If a hearing is held in public, the Court may order that there must not be published by 25 any means any particulars likely to lead to the identification of the applicant.

4—Principles governing hearings

- 25
- (1) In any proceedings for a spent conviction order—

 - (b) the Court must act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case without regard to technicalities and legal forms.
 - (2) The Court may, if satisfied that an application for a spent conviction order is 30 vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, dismiss the application without holding a hearing.

4—Parole Board

10 Part 3 Division 1 does not apply in connection with proceedings before, or the making of any decision by, the Parole Board.
